

COOKED

SURVIVAL BY ZIP CODE

3800000 BY 1965

Legend

RESIDENTIAL
CENTRAL BUSINESS DISTRICT &
MAJOR COMMERCIAL CENTERS
FOREST PRESERVES, PARKS, PLAY
PROPOSED
WATER
MAJOR THOROUGHFARES
SECONDARY THOROUGHFARES
RAPID TRANSIT LINES
IN SUBWAY & EXPRESSWAYS
BOUNDARIES
NEIGHBORHOOD
COMMUNITY - COMMUNITY NUMBER
TOWN

FILM VIEWING

PANEL DISCUSSION

Thursday, June 4, 2020 -
Thursday, June 11, 2020
View the film for free here
Use code 36f1bf89 to enter

Thursday, June 11, 2020
6:30 - 8:00 PM EDT
Visit dptv.org/cooked

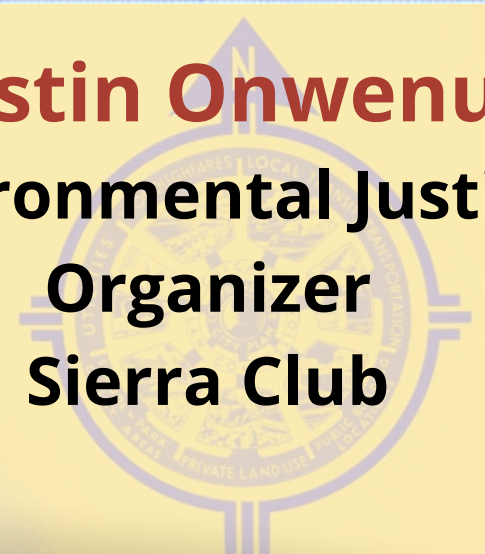

Judith Helfand
Director/Producer of COOKED

Jalonne White-Newsome
Senior Program Officer
Kresge Foundation

Trish Koman
Research Investigator
School of Public Health

Justin Onwenu
Environmental Justice
Organizer
Sierra Club

COOKED: Survival by ZIP Code is a documentary by Peabody Award-winning filmmaker, Judith Helfand, chronicling the deadly 1995 Chicago heat wave - in which 739 mostly Black, elderly, and poor Chicagoans died during the course of one week.

PANEL MODERATED BY
Donele Wilkins
President/CEO
Green Door Initiative

This event is sponsored by:

For questions, please contact Alison Walding at walison@umich.edu

