

IT'S AN EMERGENCY!

WHAT ARE WE DOING ABOUT IT? Environmental Justice and Emergency Response in Detroit

Featuring Jacquie Patterson and a panel of community voices.

Jacqueline Patterson, MSW, MPH, is the Founder and Executive Director of the Chisholm Legacy Project: A Resource Hub for Black Frontline Climate Justice Leadership. The Chisholm Legacy Project connects Black frontline communities with the resources needed to actualize climate justice. Patterson previously served as the Senior Director of the NAACP Environmental and Climate Justice Program, where she Co-Author'd "In the Eye of the Storm: A People's Guide to Transforming Crisis & Advancing Equity in the Disaster Continuum".

Wednesday March 29 2023 • 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM

Speakers will be present at:

Green Door Initiative

7650 Second Avenue
Detroit, MI 48202

Livestream will be available at:

Eastside Community Network

4401 Conner
Detroit, MI 48215

Livestream will be available at:

Kemeny Recreation Center

2260 S. Fort Street
Detroit, MI 48217

Refreshments (5:30 PM) and childcare at each location • Online livestream available

Space is limited, registration is required!
Registration and more information at
mlead.umich.edu/emergency

If you prefer to register by a phone call or text please contact the Detroit Hispanic Development Corporation at 313-967-4880.

Sponsored by: Detroit Hispanic Development Corporation • Green Door Initiative • Detroiters Working For Environmental Justice • Southwest Detroit 48217 • Detroit Mercy Law • Ecology Center • Southwest Detroit Community Benefits Coalition • Southwest Detroit Environmental Vision • Eastside Community Network • Michigan Center on Lifestage Environmental Exposures and Disease (M-LEEaD)

Support for this project was provided by a pilot project grant awarded by the Michigan Lifestage Environmental Exposures and Disease Center P30ES017885.